The London Business Hall of Fame

Established by Junior Achievement of London & District in 1990, the London Business Hall of Fame honours the lifetime achievements of London’s most distinguished individuals, past and present, who have helped shape our community through their business success, entrepreneurial spirit and philanthropic contributions. The distinguished leaders recognized by Junior Achievement have planted the seeds of greatness that today’s youth will harvest to create their future.

Nominated by their peers, Inductees are chosen by a selection committee. Each year, two laureates are selected for induction into the London Business Hall of Fame. The new Laureates will each be formally welcomed into the London Business Hall of Fame at the 2010 Induction Ceremonies and Gala Dinner on Wednesday October 13, 2010 at the London Convention Centre. This year’s Laureate portraits will be included with past Inductee portraits at the permanent exhibit located on the second floor of the London Public Library, in the Galleria, downtown London.

Honoured past Laureates of the London Business Hall of Fame include many local, inspirational business leaders:

Junior Achievement

Junior Achievement (JA) is an international non-profit organization dedicated to educating and inspiring young people about business and economics. The JA experience helps young people discover leadership, entrepreneurial and workforce readiness skills so they can achieve their highest potential and future successes as citizens in the global community.

Junior Achievement can be found in nearly 100 countries worldwide and is the world's largest and fastest-growing non-profit organization dedicated to educating and inspiring young people about business, economics, leadership and entrepreneurship. Junior Achievement has been recognized the world over for the invaluable contribution it has made in educating and shaping tomorrow's business leaders.

Since 1955, Junior Achievement in Canada has offered unique, hands-on learning opportunities to future business leaders.

Core Values and Mission

Purpose

To inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy.

Values

- Belief in the boundless potential of young people
- Commitment to the principles of market-based economics and entrepreneurship
- Passion for what we do and honesty, integrity, and excellence in how we do it
- Respect for the talents, creativity, perspectives, and backgrounds of all individuals
- Belief in the power of partnership and collaboration
- Conviction in the educational and motivational impact of relevant, hands-on learning

Envisioned Future

Junior Achievement will be the partner of choice for businesses, educators and policy-makers around the globe seeking to expand workforce and economic development. We will be revered for providing experiences that promote the skills, understanding, and perspectives students will need to succeed in a global economy and become productive, contributing members of society.

London Business Hall of Fame Laureate Selection Criteria

The London Business Hall of Fame has been created to honour those who have shown a vision unique amongst their peers, provided leadership to move others to achieve their goals, shown true integrity throughout their lives and have built a legacy in our community that will enrich all those who will follow. By recognizing their achievements, the life of each London Business Hall of Fame inductee stands as a testament to the positive impact they have made and acts as a role model for enterprising young Londoners for generations to come, which includes all youth that participate in JA's programs.

The Laureate's entrepreneurial, business and leadership skills, vision, determination and perseverance have helped to shape our city. As role-models and mentors, the Laureates have earned the respect of their peers for their integrity and sound business ethics.

Chosen by a group of their peers, the Laureates selected for induction into the London Business Hall of Fame are as much recognized for their impact on the community as they are for their role and success in business. Generous community support and concern are important qualities that can be combined with practical business education to inspire London's future leaders.
